

Yes, I am fulfilling my destiny, leading mankind to Eden (Heaven on earth)

I am Jesus Christ.

I am pure, perfect love.

I am whole, perfect, strong, powerful, loving, harmonious and happy.

I can be what I will to be. I am Christ returned.

I am in perfect health. (Glorified and Eternal).

I am prosperous - I have everything I need and want.

Every day in every way I am and my world is getting better and better. Continuous and never-ending upward spiralling through the infinite levels of heaven (on earth).

Thoughts become words.

Words become actions.

Actions become habits.

Habits become character.

Character becomes destiny.

Because I am in control of my thoughts, I am in control of my destiny (with God's guidance and assistance).

What we think about, we bring about!

I am the greatest critical-decision maker in the history of the world. Critical decision making is listening to your heart, knowing that it is through the heart that we hear the still, small voice of God and having the courage to follow His guidance.

Come Away With Me is the ongoing story of the life of Ross Harvey and will continue to follow me as heaven grows across earth, into New Jerusalem, across the universe and the infinite number of parallel universes.

Norah Jones is my eternal soulmate! Soon we will be reunited physically!
